2017 VIP Award

Recipients: Fritz Steinhoff and Mat and Kyla Habrock

Fritz Steinhoff:

In 2000, Fritz began serving as the team coordinator for Nebraska FFA teams competing at the National Convention. He began serving this role while teaching at Hartington and continued in his retirement. The 2016 National Convention marked his final convention. Fritz ensure that teams, speakers, National Chapter award finalists, proficiency award finalists, and Agriscience Fair finalists were on time to their pre-event meetings, competitive events, and various award ceremonies. He served as a central point of contact for each of the individuals and teams and helped to make them successful.

Mat and Kyla Habrock:

Through Mat's work at the Nebraska Corn Board, with Pioneer, and now as the Assistant Director of Agriculture for the State of Nebraska, he has helped to coach national officer candidates, contributed to the agriculture industry knowledge of students, served as a mentor for state officers, and established relationships and connections to the association. Through her work at Nebraska Pork Producers, Kyla has contributed to big ideas, is a champion for positive change, has mentored state officers, serves on the Nebraska FFA Foundation Board, and is intentionally and optimistically involved in many youth events.

Mat and Kyla eagerly lead the efforts around the Agriculture Issues Academy and has grown into the Next Generation Leadership Summit. Mat and Kyla model the best of being engaged and dedicated servant leaders.

2016 Distinguished Service Award

Recipients: UNL Animal Science Department

Nebraska FFA members have experienced the dedication of the Animal Science Department in many ways. Faculty members have lead hands-on learning sessions at the Pathways to Careers Conference, guided our teachers with professional development opportunities and invited agricultural education students to be a part of their many youth programs.

Our convention members and guests have seen support through the service of the Career Development Event superintendents and assistants. Teachers and students have benefitted from event leaders going above and beyond to provide high quality, useful resources. The department hosts CDEs that are of national-level quality, and their enthusiasm for connecting with students and teachers is very much appreciated.

Clint Krehbiel, Department Head

Brad Bennett, Extension Educator, CDE superintendent and assistant for Ag Demonstration LSE

Dennis Burson, Professor and CDE superintendent for 31 years

Lisa Karr-Lillienthal, Associate Professor and CDE superintendent

Lena Luck, Assistant Professor and CDE superintendent
